INSTRUCTIONS FOR ORDERING

In order to further the advancement of the Aeronautical Industry and to further the national defense, the equipment described in these pages is available to interested activities for the express purpose of experimental research, test, development, display, or gift. However, before shipment can be made, it is necessary that (1) the government know and approve the purpose for which the equipment is desired, and (2) a bailment contract be executed protecting the proprietary interest of the government. If the test to be conducted will necessitate eventual destruction of the property, no return of the equipment is required nor does the government expect reimbursement for that property destroyed. If the test does not require destruction, the material will be returned. Reports on findings will be submitted to the government. Transportation costs will be borne by the government to and from the point of destination indicated in the bailment contract.

REQUESTS FOR EQUIPMENT

A contract to be executed and returned will be supplied upon receipt of a written request which must include the following information:

a. Name (nomenclature), Catalog Section number, Stock number, and the descriptive noun which appears at the top center of the page.

b. The desired condition of the equipment which will serve the purpose; serviceable or non-serviceable.

c. Whether or not tests to be conducted will necessitate eventually destruction of equipment.

d. Specific purpose for which the equipment is desired, and a reasonably detailed description of any modification it is desired to make in or on the particular property.

e. Location or locations at which the particular property will be delivered.

f. The approximate date the equipment will be available for return.

Equipment requested will be delivered as soon as possible after the completion of the proper forms, etc. In some cases however there is a limited quantity of some items. In such cases delivery will be delayed pending availability of such items.

Communications concerning equipment should be addressed to the Commanding General, Air Materiel Command, Wright Field, Ohio, Attention Chief, Collection Division.

The Stock List at the rear of each section will be revised periodically, additions made and copies supplied to all on distribution list without request.

REQUEST FOR DOCUMENTS

Requests for documents pertaining to this equipment should specify the type of document desired, i.e: Maintenance Handbook, Operation Handbook, Parts Stock List, etc. Documents need not be returned unless requested.

Communications concerning documents should be addressed to the Commanding General, Air Materiel Command, Wright Field, Ohio, Attention Chief, Air Documents Division.

REQUESTS FOR CATALOG

8. Description: These British flying helmets are made of tanned leather and lined with soft natural colored chamois skin. They are very soft and pliable. One model has a padded chin strap. The arrangement for the fitting of earphones is their most praiseworthy feature; a roll of chamois skin shaped to fit around the ear. This fitting is soft and comfortable, shuts out aircraft noises and prevents the earphone from pressing against the wearers' ear. Straps across the back of each helmet can be adjusted for a snug fit. Snaps for the attachment of oxygen masks are provided on each side just in front of the ear phone receptacles.
