

1. (EWF, 1980) Hardness is 6.5 Further investigation is needed to determine if the light areas are alteration product or a naturally occurring part of the mineral. These areas appear to have a hardness of 6.5. They are not incrustation.