

1. (EWF, 1980) Mineral is almost definitely nephrite, from its hardness (6.5 in green and white areas) and appearance; exact identification only possible by X-ray diffraction. Further investigation needed to determine if the white areas are alteration product or a naturally occurring part of the mineral.